

FOUNDATION BAPTIST COLLEGE

Block Class: Biblical Strategy of Missions October 3–8, 2016

Description

Study of a biblical philosophy of missions and basic biblical strategies. Evaluation of theories of the mission process, and current trends in Protestant missions. Also covers missionary problems, current literature and a geographical survey of missions needs.

Professor

Dr. Alan Patterson holds the Ph.D. in New Testament Interpretation from Bob Jones University Seminary. He has served since 1982 as a missionary under Gospel Fellowship Association. Since 2002, he has worked in the home office of GFA in Greenville, SC. Traveling extensively, he has visited missionaries in approximately 35 countries and taught pastors and national Christians in Mexico, Korea, the Philippines, Cameroon, India, and Costa Rica. Overseeing the recruiting of missionaries at GFA, he has the privilege of meeting with young people who are seeking the Lord's mind regarding missions. Talking with them about the Lord's leading and calling is one of his highest joys.
