FOUNDATION BAPTIST COLLEGE is committed to forging the next link in the chain of biblical ministry. God committed that ministry to Paul, and Paul to Timothy. Then Paul commanded Timothy to commit it to other faithful men so that they in turn, could entrust it to others. From generation to generation it has finally come to us by the good hand of God, and it is now our responsibility to pass it on to others.

From the President

“Who needs formal education? We have the internet and more books than we can read. Why can’t I just educate myself by reading?”

The view has a certain appeal to it. Getting access to enough information is certainly not our problem in 2023! But already, this points to a few considerations to bear in mind.

1. You might be able to educate yourself by reading. But will you? Just as I have a tendency to run more miles once I’m committed to an upcoming race, you will grow more with the accountability of a structured program.
2. What will you choose to study? It’s only too tempting to reach for books that interest you or that you already agree with. But don’t underestimate the benefit of being directed to the best books or experiencing a time-tested program designed to insure your education is complete.
3. Learning is not just gathering information. It is developing a disciplined pattern of thinking, biblical discretion, and forming habits of wisdom. This comes through direct mentorship and personal interaction. Look for a program where you will walk alongside of your professors and where they show you life examples that you want to personally emulate.

I believe these ideas deeply because I was myself the beneficiary of formal education. My own studies opened opportunities I would never have imagined. And we want that for you. Let’s work hard together in this coming semester, even through topics and resources that we might not have chosen for ourselves. And in the process, let’s pursue the goal of true education—wisdom and the fear of the Lord.

Joel Arnold

General Information

The Mission of FBC

As a ministry of Meadowlands Baptist Church, Foundation Baptist College exists to (1) prepare future pastors for ministry and (2) strengthen members of local churches.”

Our educational objectives are as follows:

- Reading. Our students will read Scripture for themselves with understanding and joy.
- Speaking. Our students will speak and write truth cogently, truthfully, and persuasively.
- Doing. Our students will practically apply their knowledge in the context of Christian ministry.
- Thinking. Our students will reason through hard questions, exercising critical thinking skills from a broad knowledge base.
- Navigating. Our students will live out authentic Christianity in a diverse, pluralistic context.
- Engaging. Our students will cultivate a heart demeanor that is genuinely humble, quick to learn, but also courageous and bold.
- Going. Our students will be globally aware and prepared to transcend cultural differences to fulfill the Great Commission.

The Distinctive Philosophy of FBC

There are five areas of doctrine which the Bible program at FBC emphasizes. First, we desire that our students thoroughly understand the Dispensational organization of Scripture. Second, we desire that our students grasp the nature and application of separation in their personal and ecclesiastical practice. Third, we desire that our students comprehend the gospel message, and how it applies both to those already saved, and to the lost. Fourth, we desire that our students appreciate the great heritage of Baptist history and theology of which we are a part. Finally, we desire that our students realize the necessity for an expositional preaching ministry.

While we do not believe that Canadian churches are entirely bereft of these important doctrines, there certainly is a lack of their emphasis among the conversative Baptist churches across North America. FBC teaches separate classes in each of these areas of distinction. In addition, our entire curriculum is permeated by them, and this is the burden of the FBC faculty. There is yet one more distinction in the philosophy of FBC. Because we are unable at the present time to establish a seminary, the faculty believe that it is essential to raise the academic level of our training by (1) using faculty who themselves have earned advanced degrees, (2) increasing class requirements to reflect a more thorough training, and (3) offering at least two seminary-level classes, taught by visiting seminary professors, each year. We trust that this will equip our graduates to properly engage in more effective ministry.

The Need for FBC

Canadian students attending Bible college in the United States face strong temptations not to return to Canadian ministries. Churches are more numerous south of the border, more established, and able to offer higher salaries to their staff than typical Canadian churches. Many of the students sent south of the border to receive Bible education may not return to serve in Canadian churches. We, of course, have no wish to interfere in the Lord's leadership of these students. However, we fear that many students are not following the Lord's leadership when they remain in the States after their education is completed. Often the most spiritually-minded young people go to Bible college, thus depriving Canadian churches of their best servants. For the four years (+) of Bible college, the church is deprived of some of her serious youth while less needy churches near the US college enjoy their service.

The expense of a US Bible college education is prohibitive, approaching $30,000 USD per annum. Add to that the cost of books and supplies, of travel to and from school, and the expense is often prohibitive.

Existing Canadian schools are not adequate for the training of our fundamental Baptist young people. Some of the schools are liberal in their theological orientation, which makes them a poor choice for the Canadian student. Other schools which in the past have been fine Bible-teaching institutions, have for various reasons failed to maintain a stand for biblical truth. Even some of the fundamentalist Canadian schools teach an aberrant view of Bible translations, ministerial philosophy and soteriology, which undermines their effectiveness.

While there is an excellent school among the fundamental Baptist churches in the Maritimes (EBBI), the distance (three time zones away) and the regional focus suggest that a similar school is needed in the West.

We have prayed that the Lord of the harvest would be pleased to thrust laborers into His harvest in Western Canada. The typical effect of a Bible college is the establishment of numerous churches throughout the school's area. A Bible college is the natural extension of the indigenous process of church planting in any locale.

The History of FBC

In the Spring of 1997, through the leadership Pastor Don Herb, ten people from two small churches joined together to form Meadowlands Baptist Church. In the Fall of the same year, Pastor Jim Tillotson, from the greater Chicago area, became the pastor. Since then, the church has seen many souls saved, saints strengthened and servants raised up, equipped and sent out into ministry both in Edmonton and abroad. In 2006 the church moved out of its "little white building" on the corner of 17th Street and 23rd Avenue into a facility which seats about 350. In 2009-2011 they built a three-story educational addition for the Meadows Baptist Academy (K-9).

In March 2009 Pastor Bud Talbert of Foundation Baptist Church in Calgary moved to Edmonton to begin Foundation Baptist College. Classes began the following September with 2 full-time students and 4 part-time students. Greg Bartlett (2010) and Duncan Johnson (2011) became full-time faculty members to accommodate the growing student body. In 2022, Dr. Joel Arnold moved from Bob Jones Memorial Bible College in the Philippines to teach Bible and theology courses at Foundation Baptist College and in September 2022, he took over as president of the college with Pastor Bud Talbert continuing in the theology faculty.

Statement of Faith

The Scriptures

We believe that all of the sixty-six books of the Old and New Testaments were inspired by God as originally written. We believe that the Bible is therefore inerrant, and that it is the supreme standard for faith and practice. We believe that God's word for man has been preserved in all of the extant manuscripts, and not in any single family, manuscript or translation.

God

We believe that there is only one true and living God who is revealed in the three distinct personalities known as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Each person of the Godhead is spirit in His essence, infinite in His nature, and eternal in His existence. As creator God is the sovereign sustainer of everything and ineffably majestic in glory. He is just and kind in all His works, and so worthy of all man's love, honor, and praise. God is omnipresent, omniscient, omnipotent and immutable.

Jesus Christ

We believe that Jesus Christ is the second person of the Holy Trinity, that He was begotten of the Holy Ghost in the womb of the virgin Mary, that He is very God and very man, the Messiah of Israel and the only savior for all mankind.

The Holy Spirit

We believe that the Holy Spirit is the third person of the Holy Trinity, a divine person equal with God the Father and God the Son, and the divine agent in creation, revelation, and redemption. We believe that He convicts sinners, that He is the indwelling earnest and seal of saints, and that He fills, empowers, guides, gifts, teaches, and sanctifies believers in accordance with His own good pleasure. We believe in the cessation of the sign gifts.

Satan

We believe that the angelic personality known as Satan and the Devil was created by God. Through pride he and a host of other angels fell and began to oppose God and His work. He is now known as the prince of the power of the air, the unholy god of this world, the ruler of all the powers of darkness, the enemy of God, the great tempter of mankind, the destroyer, and the accuser of the saints. He is destined to final defeat at the hands of the Son of God, and he will suffer everlasting punishment in the lake of fire prepared for him and his angels.

The Creation

We believe that the biblical account of creation is to be understood literally. We believe that creation occurred by direct, immediate, creative acts of God in six literal, 24-hour days, that Adam was created in God's own image and after His own likeness as the federal head of the human race.

The Fall of Man

We believe that Adam and Eve were created innocent but by disobedience fell. In consequence they became sinners, depraved in nature and subject to Satan's power. Therefore, all of Adam's descendants are sinful by nature, choice, and practice.

The Atonement

We believe that salvation is exclusively by grace through faith in Jesus Christ. By the appointment of God the Father the Son voluntarily took upon Himself our nature without sin, honored the divine law by perfect obedience, and through the merit of His shed blood made full payment for the sin of all humanity. His atonement was the voluntary substitution of Himself in the sinner's place, bearing the penalty of God's holy law against the disobedient.

The Resurrection of Christ

We believe that Christ literally and bodily rose from the grave; that He ascended into heaven and is now at the right hand of God to make intercession for the saints; that He is our merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, and that He will return imminently, personally, visibly, and bodily.

The New Birth

We believe that sinners must be regenerated in order to be saved from sin; that regeneration consists of being created anew in Christ Jesus; that it is instantaneous and not a process; and that in the new birth those dead in sin are made partakers of the divine nature and receive eternal life as the gift of God. We believe that though the Spirit's work in regeneration is incomprehensible, it is nevertheless accomplished solely by the power of the Holy Spirit through divine truth. Its proper evidence appears in the fruits of repentance, faith and newness of life.

Repentance

We believe that repentance is part of saving faith; that it is wrought in our souls by God; and that by it the sinner becomes convinced of personal sin and of the singular way of salvation by Christ. Repentance is the change of one's mind about what saves from the guilt and penalty of sin. The blessings of salvation are made available only to those who repent.

Salvation

We believe that salvation consists in election (God's choice of those to be saved before the foundation of the world), in justification (the legal declaration of the sinner to be righteous through the merits of Christ), in reconciliation (the restoration of the fellowship of the sinner with his creator), in propitiation (the satisfaction of the Father's righteous wrath against the sinner and his sin), in redemption (the purchase of the sinner out of slavery to sin through the payment of Christ's death as a ransom), and in forgiveness (the pardon of sin on behalf of Christ's atonement). Salvation is a free gift offered by God to sinful man on the basis of his faith in Christ apart from any works of righteousness. Upon the exercise of faith the individual receives forgiveness of sin and Christ's imputed righteousness, and he is brought into a state of peace and favor with God.

Faith

We believe that faith is a gift of God by which man comes to know and embrace the truth of the Scriptures, and that it consists of knowing truth, assenting to it, and then committing one's whole person to it. The same faith that converts to Christ is able to carry the soul through all duties, temptations, conflicts, and sufferings. All believers who are progressively sanctified by faith will experience the love of God manifested in their souls and find their faith increased through patient continuance in sufferings and temptations.

Eternal Security

We believe that salvation is secure in the grace of God alone; that those who have accepted Christ are forever sealed and will never come into the condemnation of the lost; that a special providence watches over their welfare; and that they are securely held in both the hand of the Father and the hand of the Son through faith unto eternal salvation. Genuine Christians will most certainly continue to bear spiritual, evidentiary fruit, and God will most certainly save those whose faith is genuine.

The Church

We believe that a church is a congregation of immersed believers associated by a covenant of faith in the Gospel and who observe the ordinances commanded by Christ; that its officers are pastors and deacons as defined in the Scriptures; and that the mission of the church is the Great Commission. We believe that the local church is autonomous, and that the only superintendent is Christ. We believe that on matters of membership, polity, government, discipline, and benevolence the will of the local church is final.

The Ordinances

A. Baptism. We believe that Christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit to show forth his union with the crucified, buried and risen Christ, his death to sin, and his resurrection to a new life. It is not a means of grace for salvation, but it is a condition for membership in the church.

B. Lord's Supper. We believe that the Lord's Supper was instituted by our Lord as the commemoration of His death until He comes; that it is the privilege and obligation of all obedient believers; and that it should be preceded by solemn examination.

Sanctification

We believe that sanctification is accomplished in the believer's life through the cooperation of the Christian and the indwelling Holy Spirit. All claims to the eradication of the old nature in this life are unscriptural. We believe that every believer should walk in Christian love and holiness, exhibiting honesty, integrity, forbearance, and forgiveness; and that progress in these virtues will be manifested by humility and zeal for the advancement of the cause of Christ.

Eschatology

We believe in the imminent, pretribulational return of Christ to rapture the living church and raise the righteous dead. The church will then appear before the Judgment Seat of Christ to receive what each has done in his earthly body. The seven-year tribulation period will culminate in the premillennial return of Christ in great power and glory to destroy the world system and establish His visible, literal reign upon earth. We believe that the lost will be sent to suffer the righteous wrath of God for eternity, while the righteous in Christ will enjoy fellowship in glory with God forever.

Policy on Bible Translations

For the sake of uniformity, classes at FBC will use the English Standard Version of the Bible.

Admissions

How to Apply

To be a student at FBC, you must have a testimony of salvation in Jesus Christ and a secondary school transcript, GED, or ACT score. You will need to submit the following forms (available on the College website):

1. Application Form
2. Church Reference Form (must be completed by your pastor or another official in your home church)

You will also need to arrange to have your educational transcripts or test scores sent to Foundation Baptist College. There is no application fee.

Obtaining Transcripts

In order to complete your application, your school transcripts must be sent to Foundation Baptist College directly from your academic institution. (Quebec and francophone school transcripts must be submitted in English.)

All application documents (including transcripts) may be mailed to Foundation Baptist College at the address below:

Housing assistance

Although Foundation Baptist College does not make rental arrangements or negotiate rental rates on a student's behalf, students may request assistance with finding possible places to rent. It remains the student's responsibility to make rental arrangements, regularly pay rental amounts, and remain in good standing as a renter.

Transfer credits

Transfer credits will be accepted at FBC on an individual basis according to the student's grade for the course, and similarity to the FBC curriculum.

Tuition and Fees

Cost Summary

Tuition (credit students)	$210 per credit hour; $1,600 for 8 or more credits
Administrative Fee	$65 per semester
Audit fee (non-credit students)	$100 per course
Textbooks	Costs vary

Credit students

Separate courses cost $210 per credit hour. For instance, a two-credit course costs $420 and a three-credit course costs $630. A discount applies to students who register for a full-time load, defined as 8 credit hours per semester. Full-time students pay $1,600 per semester regardless of load. In addition to tuition, credit students pay an administrative fee of $65 each semester to defray the cost of record-keeping and other administrative tasks.

Audit students

Individuals who do not wish to receive course credit are welcome to audit any of our courses. The fee to audit a course is $100.

Payments

Tuition can be paid by cash, cheque, or via e-transfer to tuition@foundationbaptistcollege.com. Cheques must be payable to Foundation Baptist College. Students are encouraged to pay their semester bills in full. However, they may pay for courses in four separate payments over the course of the semester. The first payment is due on the first day of classes. Final payment is due before final exams begin. Dates can be found in the Academic Calendar (see page 25). Students will not receive their grades for the semester until all outstanding fees are paid.

Textbooks

Students are responsible to purchase their own textbooks.

Students should consult the current year's Textbook List (posted with the Schedule of Classes on the college website) to obtain necessary books.

Financial Aid

Some limited financial aid is available for students. Students with financial need should inquire with their academic advisor about available options.

Student Life

Standards of Conduct

Life as a college student includes both academic preparation and expanding social interaction. FBC provides an atmosphere for both in a local church context.

Basic Christian standards of behavior are expected in all school activities. Conduct should conform, then, to “true righteousness and holiness” (Eph 4:24). That is, members of the student body, faculty and staff should be truthful (v. 25), not wrathful (v. 26), honest and generous (v. 28), speaking with good and helpful words (v. 29), forgiving (vv. 30–32), and loving (5:1–2).

Therefore, they should be patient, kind, supportive, humble, courteous, interested in others, forbearing, pure, and always looking for the best in others (1 Cor 13:4-7). Students should strive to be full of grace and of the Spirit’s power to walk in newness of life (Rom 6:4).

Students are asked to be punctual, to make school payments in full and on time, to have their work completed by specified deadlines, and to do everything they can to make the college experience for others as pleasant as possible. Classroom interaction should be characterized by courtesy and grace. For class, students may dress in business casual (required for professors) or casual attire.

From time to time, students may be asked to complete assignments on their honor (e.g., take-home tests, or reporting completion of reading assignments). For these assignments, students should remember the value and comfort of a clear conscience (Acts 24:16).

Disciplinary Policy

Foundation Baptist College is a donor-supported ministry with a clearly defined mission. As a result, we relate very differently to our students than most local, educational organizations. Classes at FBC are not a service offered to any willing buyer. Classes are, rather, a ministry relationship we chose to enter into that fulfill our mission—(1) to train future pastors and (2) to strengthen the members of local churches. This directly and specifically informs our disciplinary and admissions policies—the students with whom we enter into this relationship and the cases that do not fit our mission.

1. “We exist to train pastors.” We have higher character expectations of our ministerial students, informed by the qualifications for an overseer (1 Tim 3:1–13; Titus 1:5–9). While these students may not be in the ministry already, we will specifically evaluate and address character patterns or major failures that would disqualify a student from holding ministerial office now or in the future.
2. “We exist to strengthen local churches.” We work with our non-ministerial students in light of their relationship to local churches. This is why we expect all students to be part of a local church and submitted to its expectations for them. Any conduct which would impinge on a student’s good-standing within a faithful local church or that calls for disciplinary action in a church is derivatively a concern for Foundation. Related, we are not willing to train or enable students who undermine or incite disorder in faithful local churches.

We will use several guidelines in evaluating ambiguous cases:

1. Is the student repentant and teachable? Have they shown the fruit of true repentance or does the ongoing pattern of their lives and their response to correction belie genuine life-transformation? Are they open to our help and are we able to help them by shaping their thinking?
2. Is the student’s conduct or example damaging to other students? Does their presence within the student body further contribute to the mission of Foundation Baptist College or detract from it?
3. Does the student’s identification with Foundation Baptist College positively undermine our own mission and identity? Does our choice to form a training partnership with the student raise credible concerns about our own biblical faithfulness?

Disciplinary measures will involve one of two responses:

1. Expulsion is for cases that raise credible concern about a person's spiritual state (parallel with issues that would be subject to church discipline). Expulsion is for one year. Re-enrollment is not guaranteed but will be subject to the discretion of the faculty and administration. Students that re-enroll at the end of this year will be automatically subject to disciplinary probation for at least one semester.
2. Disciplinary probation is for cases in which Foundation Baptist College needs to more carefully evaluate whether our training partnership truly fits our mission (generally parallel with issues that would require pastoral rebuke). Disciplinary probation can be for any specified period of time and will always involve informing the student's pastor of the issue. During the probation period, the student will be expected to make contact with a faculty member weekly for accountability and at the beginning of the next semester, the student's enrollment will be reevaluated.

Finally, our disciplinary involvement with students will be secondary to the choices of local churches, so long as those churches act within the reasonable parameters of biblical faithfulness.

Church Internship Program

Full-time credit students are required to be actively serving in a local church, and must enroll in the Church Internship program. The one-credit Church Internship Program provides diverse opportunities for the student to participate in and observe the ministry of the local church.

Students enrolled in the Church Internship Program should obtain a syllabus and activity report forms during course registration each semester.

Academic Information

Class Requirements

How does a semester work?

Our semester lasts for 15 total weeks including final exams. Most classes are 1-2 credit hours. A credit hour is defined as 15 hours of instruction (including exams) with at least two hours of homework outside of class for each hour spent in class. Typical undergraduate classes will include 300-500 pages of reading, 6-8 quizzes, 3-4 writing projects including one 5-page paper, a midterm and a final exam.

Programs

Biblical Worldview Certificate

The Biblical Worldview Certificate is a one-year program designed for students in their gap year as a foundation for a range of academic fields. This program is designed to give the critical pieces for understanding Scripture's storyline, an overview of doctrine, how to read the Bible, a survey of the Old and New Testaments, and a philosophy for spiritual growth.

The Biblical Worldview Certificate is our most flexible program. Students are required to complete a Bible core of 6 classes (12 credits).

Bible Core Classes
The Great Questions of Christianity (Introduction to Doctrine)	2
Biblical Theology (The Story of Scripture)	2
Sanctification and Christian Growth	2
Basic Bible Study Skills (Hermeneutics 1)	2
OT Survey	2
NT Survey	2

Subsequently, along with the guidance of the faculty, you will choose 18 elective credits from the rest of the college catalogue that answer your specific needs, preparing you for life and further study.

All credits from the Biblical Worldview Certificate are also included in later programs (the Associate of Theology or Bachelor of Theology) so that you can continue your studies directly into other programs.

Associate of Theology in Biblical Studies

Building on the Biblical Worldview Certificate, the Associate’s degree is a two-year program that also includes general studies and opens the pathway to a complete bachelor of theology.

The Associate’s degree is divided between three types of classes: the Bible core (12 credits), general studies (16 credits) and electives (32 credits).

Category	Total Classes*	Total Credits
Bible Core	6	12
General Studies	8	16
Electives	16	32
Total:	30	60

* Most classes are 2 credits, but in the case of classes with fewer or more credits, the program requirement is based on total credits, not total classes.

As with the Biblical Worldview Certificate, all credits for the Associate of Theology are also included in the Bachelor of Theology so that you can continue your studies directly into that program with no loss of credits.

Bachelor of Theology in Bible

Building on the Biblical Worldview Certificate and Associate of Theology, the Bachelor of Theology is a standard four-year program including a full general studies program.

The Bachelor of Theology is comprised of three types of classes: the Bible core (12 credits), general Bible and theology courses (78 credits), and electives (30 credits).

----------	----------------	---------------

Bible Core	6	12
General Bible and Theology	39	78
General Studies	15	30
Total:	60	120

* Most classes are 2 credits, but in the case of classes with fewer or more credits, the program requirement is based on total credits, not total classes.

The general Bible and Theology courses are further divided into five categories (highlighted courses are from the Bible core):

Systematic and Biblical Theology	14
The Great Questions of Christianity (Introduction to Doctrine)	2
Bible Doctrines 1 (Introduction, Trinity, Angels, Man)	2

Graduate Certificate

The Graduate Certificate is a pathway into the Master of Theology. The certificate requires 16 credits and is designed to be completed in one year. All of the credits for the Graduate Certificate are also included in the Master of Theology. Students are required to complete the graduate studies core (four classes, 8 credits) after which they may choose an additional 8 credits to fit their specific needs.

All graduate programs require students to have already earned a Bachelor’s degree.

Academic Policies

Audit Requirements

Any student at least 16 years old may audit any FBC course. Audit students are not required to complete assignments.

Course registration

Prior to the beginning of each semester, registered full-time and part-time credit students must complete a Course Registration Form that includes all regular semester courses and block courses for the semester. Once approved and signed by the student's academic advisor, this form becomes the official record of the student's registered courses for the semester and is placed in the student's file.

Course withdrawal

For registration purposes, converting from credit to audit status in any class is viewed as equivalent to a request to drop/withdraw from the class.

Period	Semester courses	Block courses
Drop/Add Period	Weeks 1-3	Days 1-2 of the block class
Withdrawal Period	Weeks 3-8	Days 1-5
No withdrawals permitted	Weeks 9-15	Day 6

Drop/Add Period: During the first three weeks of the semester, students may make changes to their course registration with the approval of their advisor. Courses that are dropped during this time will not appear on transcript records and students will be refunded 100% of the tuition charged for the dropped course.

Withdrawal Period: During this period, students may request to withdraw from a class. If approved, the student's grade for the course will be recorded as a W (Withdraw), which has no GPA penalty. If a student wishes to change from credit to audit in a course, they must do so before the end this period. There are no refunds for courses withdrawn during this period.

Academic standing is determined as follows:

- For regular semester-length courses, a grade of D or an F on the Mid-Semester Grade Report is considered to be poor academic standing, while a grade of C or better on the Mid-Semester Grade Report is considered to be good academic standing.
- For block courses, the student's cumulative grade on all assignments due by Friday of the block class week will be considered the basis for academic standing, regardless of the date of the withdrawal request. If no assignments have come due by the Friday of the block class week, the request to withdraw will be automatically denied (unless caused by extenuating circumstances).

No withdrawals permitted: Withdrawal is not an option; students will receive the grade earned.

Program Completion

Grading is based on a straight 10 point scale.

A	90%–100%	superior
B	80%–89%	above average
C	70%–79%	average
F	Below 60%	failure

A course completed with a grade of D cannot be counted toward a student's diploma program. If required for a student's academic program, the course must be repeated satisfactorily for program completion. If an elective, the student may repeat the course or substitute another elective of equal credits for program completion. Courses may only be repeated once to satisfy program requirements.

Students must maintain a 2.0 grade point average to be eligible to complete a diploma program.

Grade Point Average

A student's grade point average (GPA) is computed by dividing the quality points earned by the hours attempted. Quality points will be computed on a four-point scale as follows:

A	4 quality points per semester hour earned
---	---

- B 3 quality points per semester hour earned
 - C 2 quality points per semester hour earned
 - D 1 quality point per semester hour earned
 - F or WF 0 quality points per semester hour carried
- Grades of P (passed), Au (audit), and W (withdrawn) are not included in GPA calculations.

Assignments

Professors are at liberty to change due dates or assignments, with adequate notice. Students must satisfactorily complete all assignments (including participation assignments) in order to pass any course.

Academic integrity

Academic integrity is the natural result of Christian behavioral standards in an academic setting. Therefore, students are expected to exhibit every evidence of “true righteousness and holiness” in academic efforts, including truthfulness and honesty (Eph. 4:24, 25, 28). Students should remember the value and comfort of a clear conscience (Acts 24:16) in all their academic efforts. Further discussion of expectations for students can be found on page 16.

Academic integrity is specifically defined as the pursuit of scholarly activity in an open, honest and responsible manner. All students should act with personal integrity, and respect the rights and property of others.

Dishonesty of any kind will not be tolerated. Dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarizing, fabricating information or citations, facilitating acts of academic dishonesty by others, having unauthorized possession of examinations, submitting work of another person or work previously used without informing the instructor, or tampering with the academic work of other students. Students who are found to be dishonest will receive academic sanctions and the situation will be discussed at a regular meeting of the College faculty for possible further action.

Late Work

Professors are at liberty to grant reasonable extensions when students make advance request. When an assignment is late, professors may deduct the final grade of the assignment as they see fit.

Participation and attendance

Attendance is expected every class day. Students should complete readings and assignments before class each day, and are expected to actively participate by listening, questioning, and speaking.

If a student must be absent, it is requested that they notify the professor in advance of class meeting. Even if absent, students must turn in assignments before the time when class meets. After the first two unexcused absences from class, the relevant portion of the course grade for the class may be lowered for each absence.

Academic probation

From time to time, students will begin their education at Foundation Baptist College on academic probation based on the quality and standing of their high school or transferred college transcriptions. Also, any student whose cumulative GPA drops below a 2.0 may be placed upon academic probation the following semester.

Academic probation includes the following limitations:

- A maximum load of 6 credits per semester. This restriction includes block classes and regular semester classes, but does not include the required 1 credit internship program.
- A student under probation must meet with his/her academic advisor during Mid-Semester Break for a progress review.
- A student under probation may not preregister for the next semester until grades at the end of the semester have been reviewed. Once the grades have been reviewed:
 - If the student has a semester average of 70% or higher and no course grades lower than a C-, he or she may continue in their program.
 - Otherwise, the student may be dropped for poor scholarship at the discretion of the faculty. Although free to continue auditing courses, dropped students must re-apply to Foundation Baptist College if they wish to again take courses for credit.

Course Descriptions

The curriculum at Foundation Baptist College is divided between book expositions (Ex), theology and church history (Th), biblical survey (Su), practical ministry (Pr), and ancient languages (AL).
